East & Greenfield Galleries

An exhibition of recent paintings, drawings, intaglio, and screen prints created at the Armory Art Center by faculty member and student Mark Cohen. The collection makes us look at who we are and what we believe in. From the genocide of humans and animals in the last 75 year, this collection is snap shots that beg the question, "what has happened?." The artist hopes that we can all take the next step and ask ourselves "What can I do to make this a better world?"

Meet the artist, Mark Cohen in the gallery during the West Palm Beach Arts Festival, Saturday, Dec 1st and Sunday, Dec 2nd from 11:00 am – 4:00 pm.

The annual Grassy Waters photography contest is intended to showcase the natural environment in the West Palm Beach Preserve. Images should reflect the preserve's diversity including landscapes, wildlife, animal behavior, plant life, water, weather, and the seasons. The 2019 contest is sponsored by Grassy Waters Conservancy, and the City of West Palm Beach. For the first time, contest winners will have their work on view at the Armory Art Center to help support the Grassy Waters reserve and photographers in the West Palm Beach community.

For more information go to www.grassywaters.org. Registration to enter the contest will be open on the website in February 2019.
